Preconference Workshops

CAPS 2009
Thursday, April 2, 2009

WSA1 Workshop One: Invited All-Day Workshop 9-12:00 and 2-5:00 (6CE) Audience Level: All Levels

"PREPARE/ENRICH Certification Training"

Gary Barnes, PhD, ThM is a licensed psychologist who has a private practice in Dallas, Texas; he is also an associate professor of biblical counseling at Dallas Theological Seminary. Dr. Barnes is the pastoral care representative on the CAPS International Board. Matt Turvey, PsyD is a licensed psychologist in Minnesota. He is the director of strategic alliances for two organizations: Life Innovations, Inc. and Marriage Today. Both have taught numerous certification seminars for PREPARE/ENRICH.

Workshop Description: PREPARE/ENRICH is a program based on a set of five inventories that examine major relationship issues a couple may experience. These inventories must be administered by a trained PREPARE/ENRICH Counselor and include 4-6 feedback sessions in which the counselor facilitates discussion between the couple based on their inventory results. PREPARE/ENRICH Inventories have strong psychometric properties; high levels of reliability and validity have been found for each instrument, making them valuable tools for research as well as clinical use. Participants will leave this workshop certified to use this important tool.

Learning Objectives:

Participants will acquire skills using PREPARE/ENRICH that will equip them to:

1. Aid couples in exploring relationship strengths and growth areas;
2. Help couples learn assertiveness and active listening skills & learn how to resolve conflict using the Ten Step Model;
3. Help couples discuss their family-of-origin issues and dynamics; and
4. Assist couples with financial planning and budgeting, with a focus on personal, couple and family goals.

To honor copyright privileges, Pre-conference Workshop One will not be recorded by CAPS. All audio/video recorders will be prohibited from the workshop.

Special Perk: Registrants for Workshop One will receive a complimentary 1-year CAPS membership! (limited to new members)

WSA2 Workshop Two: Invited Morning Workshop 9-12:00 (3 CE) Audience Level: All Levels

"Just Forgiving: Yourself and Others"

Everett Worthington, PhD is a licensed psychologist in private practice in Virginia; he is professor and past chair of the Psychology Department at Virginia Commonwealth University. Dr. Worthington is the president-elect of Division 36 "Psychology of Religion" of the American Psychological Association. He has served on the CAPS Board as the academic representative. Widely sought as a speaker, media personality, and author of hundreds of books and journal articles, Dr. Worthington is an international authority on the subject of forgiveness. Among his books on this topic are: Just Forgiving, Steps to REACH Forgiveness and to Reconcile, Forgiveness and Reconciliation, and The Power of Forgiving.

Workshop Description: This practical workshop is built on the scientific study of forgiveness and reconciliation. It includes recent advances in theory and practice for promoting forgiveness of others, use of rational analysis to promote resolutions in justice, and forgiveness within the framework of Micah 6:8 ("He has told you, O man, what he requires of you: To do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with your God.") This workshop provides theory and method to (a) understand forgiveness within the context of justice; (b) promote forgiveness in groups or therapy; (c) understanding conflicts between justice and forgiveness using an analysis of structures, triggers, and concentration; (d) promote reconciliation; and (e) promote forgiveness of the self.

Learning Objectives:

Participants will obtain knowledge and skills that will allow them to better:

1. Articulate an understanding of forgiveness;
2. Describe (briefly) a way that one might forgive faster, if one wishes to do so;
3. Describe a four-step process of reconciliation; and
4. Describe a method for forgiveness of self.

WSA3 Workshop Three: Invited Morning Workshop 9-12:00 (3 CE) Audience Level: Introductory

"The Sexual Healing Journey: Restoring Healthy Intimacy to Traumatized Marriages"

Douglas Rosenau, EdD, ThM is a licensed psychologist, marriage & family therapist, and sex therapist. He is the founding co-director of Intimacy Counseling Center in Duluth, Georgia. Dr. Rosenau has spoken and written widely in the field of human sexuality; a sampling of his books include A Celebration of Sex and Soul Virgins: Redefining Single Sexuality. Debra Taylor, MA is a licensed marriage & family therapist and sex therapist in private practice in Ventura, California. Michael Syutsma, PhD is a licensed professional counselor, sex therapist, and ordained minister in greater Atlanta, Georgia. He is the president and founder of Building Intimate Marriages, Inc. All three are on faculty of the Institute for Sexual Wholeness, a non-profit organization founded to train mental health professionals, pastors, and churches in healthy sexuality.

Workshop Description: Healthy marital intimacy can be crippled by false expectations and myths, repressive backgrounds, sexual traumas, promiscuous pasts, extramarital affairs and sexual addictions. This workshop will help counselors join the sexual journey of their clients as they learn skills for bringing healing to hurting couples. These will include extending grace, rebuilding trust and sexual safety, disputing myths, and re-engaging in lovemaking.

Learning Objectives:

Participants will gain skills to assist couples and gain deeper awareness in these areas:

1. The ways sexual brokenness creates false beliefs that prevent sexual intimacy;
2. The importance of and how to begin extending grace and forgiveness, and rebuilding trust;
3. The deeper meaning of the Scriptural concepts of "naked and unashamed" and "knowing" in sexual healing; and
4. Steps for rebuilding physical touch, affection, and re-engaging in lovemaking.

WSA4 Workshop Four: Selected Morning Workshop 9-12:00 (3 CE) Audience Level: Intermediate to Advanced

"Psychotherapy with Men: A Different Brain"

Gloria Vanderhorst, PhD is a licensed psychologist in private practice in Silver Spring, Maryland, with 30 years of practice and experience with treatment of boys and men. She is a diplomate in the American College of Forensic Psychologists, and has extensive experience as an expert witness for child custody.

in more gender specific ways. God's unique design can inform our treatment processes leading to specific approaches based on spiritual growth. Case studies will be interwoven with recent research results to demonstrate the effect of early socialization on the formation of emotional patterns that guide the man's relationships with others and his relationship with God.

Learning Objectives:

Participants in this workshop will explore the following:

1. The 4 common causes for adult men to seek psychotherapy;

2. The unique design of the male brain that impacts how they process emotion and relational dynamics;
3. Apply the relational dynamics knowledge to treatment planning for adult men; and
4. Develop a framework for conceptualizing the unique male emotional processes designed by God and how to facilitate spiritual growth that can help men to access that potential.

WSB5 Workshop Five: Invited Afternoon Workshop 2-5:00 (3 CE) Audience Level: Introductory

“Dealing with Domestic Violence”

Charles Bell, EdD is the director of the First Orlando Counseling Center at First Baptist Church in Orlando, Florida; he is also an adjunct professor at Palm Beach Atlantic University. He is a licensed psychologist and specializes in divorce recovery and blended family issues. Kay Eck, MS is a licensed mental health counselor and senior staff member at the First Orlando Counseling Center. She specializes in trauma recovery and spiritual issues.

Workshop Description: This workshop will focus on the cycle of domestic abuse, as well as provide a consideration of treatment plans and theoretical orientations for intervention with both victims and perpetrators. The impact of domestic violence on children, other family members, and friends will be discussed. Content is specifically designed to meet licensure requirement for the state of Florida.

Learning Objectives: Participants in this workshop will learn:
 1. To recognize and define domestic violence;
 2. Mandatory reporting, how to report and when it is required;
 3. How domestic violence impacts children in the family; and
 4. How to counsel the abused and the abuser.

WSB6 Workshop Six: Invited Afternoon Workshop 2-5:00 (3CE) Audience Level: All Levels

“Assuring Hope and Healing with Ethical and Legal Practice”

Larry Shyers, PhD is a licensed mental health counselor in private practice in Mount Dora, Florida. He also works as an adjunct professor at both Palm Beach Atlantic University and Reformed Theological Seminary. He has served on the Florida state mental health licensure board, and has published numerous articles on legal and ethical issues related to professional practice of mental health.

Workshop description: This workshop is designed to meet Florida requirements for a 3-hour course in the legal and ethical considerations of mental health practice. This workshop has been designed to provide the Christian mental health professional an understanding of codes of ethics and most common breeches. In addition, this workshop will introduce participants to a decision making model that can be used to limit their potential for violation. The Christian ethical practitioner helps assure that each patient they see can achieve both hope and healing.

Learning Objectives: As a result of this presentation, each participant will:
 1. Learn how to use an ethical decision making model;
 2. Develop an understanding of the legal aspects of therapy;
 3. Learn to avoid the most common ethical errors; and
 4. Understand the relationship between ethical practice and providing hope and healing for their patients.

WSB7 Workshop Seven: Selected Afternoon Workshop 2-5:00 (3 CE) Audience Level: Introductory to Intermediate

“Enhancing Your Global Cross-Cultural Competence: Strategies for Effectiveness in Counseling and Consulting with Cross-Cultural Workers”

Brent Lindquist, PhD is a licensed psychologist in California. He is the president and a staff psychologist at Link Care Center in Fresno, CA. Link Care is a treatment facility that specializes in mental health and spiritual care for missionary and humanitarian workers. For 38 years, Dr. Lindquist has traveled internationally, and consulted with and provided health care services to missionaries and missions and humanitarian organizations. He serves on the boards of several missions organizations and has published a number of articles about member care.

Workshop Description: This workshop will build competencies in the professional desiring to effectively counsel and consult with NGO cross-cultural workers, both in their home environment and in their cross-cultural environment. The participant will learn how to identify cultural issues and situations which may hinder the application of western mental health strategies, and how to adjust these strategies to achieve effectiveness. A set of exercises will be taught to aid in various ways of quick identification of group involvement, cultural temperature, local population behavioral styles, and others. A comprehensive reading list will also be provided for those wishing to continue their own development.

Learning Objectives: As a result of this workshop, participants will:
 1. Understand cross-cultural effectiveness dimensions and how to utilize them in the counseling process;
 2. Develop a quick identification strategy for goal setting with cross-cultural and therapeutic components;
 3. Develop a model for effective brief treatment strategies when in the field for professional services; and
 4. Be able to develop a strategic follow-up plan for the client and organization.

WSB8 Workshop Eight: Selected Afternoon Workshop 2-5:00 (3CE) Audience Level: Introductory

“Sexual Identity Therapy”

Mark Yarhouse, PsyD is a licensed psychologist and marriage and family therapist in private practice in Virginia Beach, Virginia. He is the Rosemarie Scotti Hughes Endowed Chair of Christian Thought in Mental Health Practice, School of Psychology and Counseling, Regent University, Virginia Beach, Virginia. Dr. Yarhouse is on the editorial and/or review boards of seven professional journals and has been a guest reviewer/special issues editor for the Journal of Psychology and Christianity. He has been the (co)/principal investigator in numerous research grants awarded for research in the area of gender identity; and he has published many articles and book chapters on this and related topics. Dr. Yarhouse is the (co)/author of many books, including: Ex-gays? A longitudinal study of religiously mediated change in sexual orientation, Sexual identity synthesis: Attributions, Meaning-Making, and The Search for Congruence, and Homosexuality: The Use of Scientific Research in the Church’s Moral Debate.

Workshop Description: Sexual identity therapy is an innovative paradigm for exploring sexual identity conflicts. It is a recently proposed alternative to the often polarized reparative and gay affirmative therapies. It is premised on the assumption that clients seek congruence in their lives so that their behavior and identity lines up with their beliefs and values (or vice versa). Participants in this workshop will be introduced to a framework that identifies four major steps in conducting sexual identity therapy, as well as three key theoretical assumptions for providing services. Ample time will be spent discussing case examples of sexual identity therapy.

Learning Objectives: Participants in this workshop will:
 1. Learn the key points in a framework for implementing sexual identity therapy;
 2. Identify three essential theoretical assumptions of sexual identity therapy;
 3. Understand the ethical controversies surrounding service provision for sexual identity conflicts; &
 4. Recognize the role of congruence in achieving sexual identity synthesis.

CAPS 2009 Plenary Speakers

Thursday Evening Opening Plenary Session

Gary Moon, PhD

Dr. Moon is a licensed psychologist in Atlanta, Georgia. Presently, he is serving as Vice President, Chair of Integration and Professor of Psychology and Spirituality at the Psychological Studies Institute, where he was responsible for starting the journal, Conversations. He also serves as the Director for the Renovaré International Institute for Christian Spiritual Formation and as a writer/editor for LifeSprings Resources. He is the founding director of the Institute for Clinical Theology, a gathering of evangelical scholars who are interested in promoting training in the classic Christian spiritual disciplines among mental health professionals and pastoral counselors. Gary has spoken and published widely on the topics of spiritual formation and Christian counseling. There is not a more pastoral, genuine, and caring person...and good friend of CAPS... to bless and warmly greet us at our 2009 opening plenary session!

Friday Morning Plenary Session

Debra Taylor, MA

Debra Taylor is a licensed marriage, family, and child therapist in Ventura, California. She is also certified as a sex therapist through the American Association of Sex Educators, Counselors, and Therapists. In her private practice, Debra specializes in marital therapy, sex therapy, affair recovery, premarital therapy, depression and women's issues. Additional professional work includes being on faculty at: The Institute for Sexual Wholeness (in affiliation with The Psychological Studies Institute of Atlanta, GA), where she teaches sex therapy at the graduate level; and training health professionals, pastors, and churches in healthy sexuality through a non-profit organization called Sexual Wholeness, Inc. She is a co-author of the popular book, Secrets of Eve: Understanding the Mystery of Female Sexuality. Widely published in the field of human sexuality and a speaker in demand at the national level, you will be glad you wake up early to come hear this morning plenary session!

Friday Luncheon Plenary Session

Saul Cruz, MS

Saul Cruz, of Mexico City, is founder and co-director (for 29 years) of Armonia Ministries together with his wife, Pilar Cruz. Their ministry is to poor communities in both urban and rural areas in Mexico. He is a psychologist, family therapist, and university lecturer. He has served as president of the governing board for COMPA in Mexico. He has worked for other various organizations in Mexico, including World Vision, and has also pastored two churches. Saul speaks internationally, including delivering a keynote address at Urbana 2006. Join us for lunch and stay to hear this dynamic speaker, a man of God who truly "walks the talk" in ministries to the least of the disenfranchised among us.

Saturday Morning Plenary Session

Anne Grizzle, LCSW

Anne Grizzle is a licensed clinical social worker with degrees from Harvard and Columbia Universities, who works as a psychotherapist, consultant and workshop leader. In her Houston, Texas-based practice, she specializes in the treatment of grief, family of origin issues, family communication, and contemplative spirituality. She is co-founder of Houston Women of Vision and serves on the board of Leighton Ford Ministries and Amistad Mission. She also serves on the Builders Council for Community of Hope and volunteers at San Mateo Church. Anne has completed training with Shalem Institute as a group spiritual director and offers workshops and retreats on contemplative spirituality. Anne has authored three books, including Reminders of God: Altars for Personal and Family Devotion; she is in constant demand as a national speaker and author, and has appeared on "Oprah". Trust me, Anne will speak directly to your soul, and will warm your heart and challenge your thinking; this is a morning plenary you will not want to miss!
